

EXPLORE

APPLICATION VERSE:
1 Thessalonians 2:12

EXPLORE WITH YOUR FAMILY:

Paul encouraged the Thessalonians to have integrity in three areas: prayer, obedience, and daily responsibilities. Divide family members into small groups. Give each group two household items (pencil, toy, shoe, cellphone, hair brush, etc.). Have the groups choose one of the three areas and make up a story or skit using two of the items of how someone was tempted, but chose to have integrity.

TODAY I LEARNED . . .

Integrity is doing what is right in all situations.

NEXT STEP

Demonstrate integrity in all that I do.

I spent time alone with God:

FIELD NOTES

Property of Integrity:

Doing what is right
in all situations

PRAYER

(2 Thessalonians 3:2)

Who are some people you are praying for?

OBEDIENCE

(2 Thessalonians 3:3-5)

Is there an area you need to improve your obedience?

Is there a specific person to whom you need to be more obedient?

DAILY RESPONSIBILITIES

(2 Thessalonians 3:6-9)

What are some of your daily responsibilities?

How do you feel you rank in fulfilling them?

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Why is having integrity an important aspect of a believer's life?

When a believer chooses not to show integrity, how can that validate an unbeliever's view of Christianity?
