

EXPLORE

APPLICATION VERSE:
Psalm 105:4

EXPLORE WITH YOUR FAMILY:

One night before dinner, place the garbage can on the dinner table. After everyone has reacted, lead a discussion about how gross garbage is and compare it to sin. God thinks worse of our sin than we think about the disgusting garbage. God is holy and cannot let us get away with sin. Also, our sin separates us from Him. Discuss that dilemma to be sure your family understands the solution. We get rid of the garbage by taking it out. We get rid of our sin through God's forgiveness when we confess and repent of it.

TODAY I LEARNED . . .

King David repented of his sin and asked for God's forgiveness.

NEXT STEP

Be aware of the Holy Spirit's conviction (making me aware of my sin) and choose to confess and repent of my sin.

Necessity of Repentance

BIBLE BASICS:

With your family, review 1 John 1:9.

FIELD NOTES

Property of

Who was Bathsheba?

Who was Uriah?

What did David try to hide from God?

What was the purpose of Nathan's story?

What were David's two choices?

What choice did he make?

What was the result?

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Have you ever felt the Holy Spirit convict you of something you were doing that you knew was wrong?

Why is admitting our own sin the first step toward forgiveness?
